

Policy AC014: Course Numbering

Recommended for Approval by:

Dr. Scott E. Miller, VP for Academic Affairs and Provost,
Pennsylvania Western University

Approved by:

Dr. Dale-Elizabeth Pehrsson, President,
Pennsylvania Western University

Effective Date: 07/01/2022

A. Intent

To define the course numbering system at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

B. Definition(s)

Developmental Course: A course designed to provide pre-college remediation in a specific discipline in order to prepare the student for college-level work in that discipline. For example, a developmental course in mathematics would review critical mathematical topics typically covered at the high school level, and which are essential for success in college-level mathematics study.

Graduate Student: A university student who has received a Bachelor's degree and is pursuing an additional advanced degree.

Undergraduate Student: A university student who has not yet received a Bachelor's degree.

C. Policy

Courses numbered 0500-0999 are developmental courses at Pennsylvania Western University. Courses numbered 1000 through 4999 are undergraduate courses. Courses numbered 5000 through 9999 are graduate courses. In certain circumstances, undergraduate students are permitted to take graduate courses. Students should refer to related policies below.
